LIST OF EXHIBITORS

ALBERT R. ABBOTT
Star Route 3, Box 267
Remer, MN 56672
218-566-2963

Albert Abbott is retired, age 66, and does woodworking as a hobby. He designs and makes a variety of pieces for himself and friends.

JACQUELINE RAE BAKER
140 West King Street
St. Paul, MN 55107
612-224-7430

Jacqueline Rae Baker is a self-taught, non-professional woodworker. Through extensive reading and practical shop experience, she continues to improve her woodworking skills. She is an admirer of Shaker furniture and timber-frame buildings. She also enjoys woodturning and attended a week long wood turning class at Stout State University.

JOHN BERGLUND
John Berglund Woodworking
15695 County Road 44
South Haven, MN 55382
612-558-2338

John Berglund's goal as he creates each individualistic lathe-turned form, is to maximize the beauty of the form to the beauty of the material being used. Utilizing sawn lumber, unusually grained burls, and logs straight out of the woods, he blends together classic traditional lines with designs of his own invention to present an aesthetically pleasing form. John has received several awards for his work and is currently showing at various galleries.

MERRIMON HIPPS
315 East 43rd Street
Minneapolis, MN 55409
612-825-1693

Mike is a musician by profession, and has been involved in woodworking for about 25 years. His work ranges from furniture to small turned objects and bandsawn boxes. He enjoys coming up with his own designs, often using natural features of the wood as design elements.

JOHN HOPPE
1500 Xenia Avenue North
Golden Valley, MN 55422
612-544-8431

John has been involved in woodworking for over 26 years. He cuts and mills most of his lumber from the tree to the finished product. This allows him excellent control of grain pattern and other wood characteristics.

TIM JOHNSON
Compliments
3014 West 50th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55410
612-824-1536

Tim has been buying, restoring, and selling antique furniture for 17 years. More recently he has been designing and building traditional American styles. He owns Compliments, a store where he displays both his antique and custom made furniture.
